Where: Oxico, Panonska cesta 6, 85104, Bratislava

THINK!, the brand-new coursebook by Cambridge University Press, goes beyond building strong language skills to developing the whole learner – with an emphasis on healthy self-esteem and critical thinking. We will look at skills and activities which help students develop their critical thinking as an essential part of learning a foreign language. The seminar will be accompanied by sample pages from THINK!, the new coursebook for upper-secondary level.
